Book Description

This nautical book outlines the challenges we face as believers in sailing through life's journeys, and navigating through trials and difficulties. The child of God is on a mission and must find the ability to maintain their footing in the intense winds that will bombard either the weakness or reality of faith and fellowship with his God. There are many manmade anchors but, only the anchor of Faith will remain steadfast. We will expound on the unchanging nature, and the power that comes from understanding God has literally given His method of remaining anchored in the storms through faith in His provident presence, practical promises, and the performance of His plans. God has given His word of honor, and promises to the believer having, bound himself to faithfully fulfill them. Every sailing will have treasures that simply wait for the believer to take possession. It is the time of hope and expectation and these must become an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast. God's Presence calls us behind the veil and allows us to have the spiritual peace that will transcend all your squalls, thunderous storms, tribulations, and overwhelming waves! As a harbinger, this book comes to tell you to batten down your hatches! Prepare to prove the strength of your hope by Anchoring Your Faith -Now! Please don't forget to leave a review!
