Book Description

Tara grew up playing and laughing with her two best friends — twins Noah and Mitch. Life is uncomplicated and carefree — until she falls for one of them. The wrong one. Tara is the first born of her pack, and with the title comes responsibility — the expectation that she will bond with an Alpha heir to strengthen her pack's standing...and Mitch was born seven minutes too late. Tara's heart is torn when a deep connection with Mitch is awakened and she discovers the potential for so much more than friendship. But her mind knows what she must choose. When the impossible strikes Mitch's family, when their sacred Glade is threatened, Tara is forced to decide — her heart or her pack? Positive feedback for Prophecy Awakened - First in the Prime Prophecy Series What a phenomenal story!...The writing style is eloquent, fluid and passionate...The story is brilliant, it draws you in from the first word and it doesn't let go until the end. I highly recommend this book to any romance lover. — Amazon Reviewer I ABSOLUTELY loved this book from beginning to end. You are a truly lovely and wonderful author . I am glad I got the chance to read this book about Noah and Eden. This IS MY TYPE of book. Can't wait for more. — Goodreads Reviewer
